Cemetery Notice.

The citizens of Fort Wayne are requested to meet at the Court House on TUESDAY Evening next, at early candlelight, for the purpose of taking into consideration the subject of purchasing a suitable piece of ground for a Cemetery. A general attendance is requested.

Congressional Convention.

The convention, at Kendallville, was well attended; each county being fully represented. It was temporarily organized by appointing Pliny H. Agland, esq., Chairman, and Mr. G. A. G. Kneib, Secretary. A committee was then appointed to select permanent officers of the convention, who soon after reported for President A. Allison, esq., of Lagrange, and the democratic editors of the district, present, for Secretaries.

The several committees were then appointed, and the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock. A. the re-assembling of the convention Mr. Randall reported the Resolutions, which being adopted, a motion was made to go into a ballot for a candidate for Congress. Mr. Smith, of this county, then presented a letter from Dr. Sturgis, declining to be a candidate, which Mr. Smith accompanied with some pertinent and appropriate remarks. Mr. Dawson, also, declined being a candidate, after boasting a little of his popularity in Allen County. Judge Worden's name was then announced to the convention, and an informal ballot taken which resulted in Judge Worden having a majority on the first ballot; and he was declared unanimously the candidate for Congress in the 10th District.

We congratulate the democracy upon the result. We have an able and popular candidate whom all can heartily rally with and the most cheering prospect of success.

Under all these circumstances, it is the best nomination that could have been made; and though Judge Worden had not been spoken of as a candidate, and probably had not himself any expectation of the honor conferred upon him, it appears to be generally and heartily acquiesced in. There was so much feeling engendered between the friends of the other candidates, that it is not probable any of them could have received that cordial and united support which would be necessary to ensure the election. The nomination of a new man was therefore a judicious act on the part of the Convention, and Judge Worden is probably the strongest man that could have been selected. He is an able man, well known and fairly popular throughout the district, and is undoubtedly rally the whole democratic strength in his support.

We will give the proceedings of the convention next week.

Resignation of Judge Stuart.—Judge Stuart of the Indiana Supreme Court has resigned. The reason given is that his private affairs constrain him to resume the practice. Or in other words, that the beggarly pittance allowed our judges is not sufficient to maintain his family, and that he can earn more by practicing as a lawyer than he receives as judge of our Supreme Court. It is a disgrace and injury to the state that we do not allow our judges such a fair compensation as would enable us to command the best legal abilities on the bench. We trust this will be rectified.

The vacancy caused by this resignation will have to be filled at the ensuing October election.

FIREMEN'S VISIT.—The Toledo Relief Hook & Ladder Company paid our city a visit on Tuesday last as guests of Alert Fire Co. No. 1, and it is perhaps needless to say were "put through" in first rate style.

The guests arrived here at 10 o'clock and were received by the Alerts, who escorted them to the Mayor's house, where they partook of an excellent breakfast; after which a procession was formed consisting of the two companies, with flags and bands of music, and their apparatus beautifully decorated with garlands and wreaths.

On arriving at Firemen's Hall the "Reliefs" were welcomed in a neat and appropriate manner by Mr. Dodge, Mr. Bassell, of Toledo, on behalf of the Hook & Ladder Company, then presented Capt. Bouris of the Alerts with a splendid silver trumpet accompanying the gift with an appropriate and eloquent address, to which Capt. Bouris suitably responded. The company then proceeded to Colerick's Hall and partook of a sumptuous dinner got up in Colerick's best style, and to which ample justice was done. After dinner champagne and catwabs were discussed, toasts given, speeches made, and a good time had generally. The remainder of the day was spent in an uninterrupted round of enjoyment and festivity, until near midnight, when the guests were escorted to the cars by their hosts, and returned home, highly delighted with their visit, and enthusiastic in their praises of the liberality of our firemen and the hospitality of their reception.

The Toledo company is a fine, gentlemanly, well-behaved body of men, and have left a very favorable impression of the city they represented among our citizens.

The Toledo papers speak in the highest terms of the handsome manner in which their company was received by our citizens, and we feel assured this visit will do much to strengthen the cordiality and good feeling existing between two places so intimately connected as Toledo and Fort Wayne.

The Jeffersonian of this place publishes an edition for circulation in Whitley Co., changing the head of the paper, and calling it the Whitley Co. Jeffersonian. The Democrats, there, however, do not seem to have much more confidence in him than the democracy of Allen Co. have. At their late County Convention the proceedings were ordered to be published in the Sentinel, and the democratic papers in the district requested to copy them—thus ignoring the Whitley Co. Jeffersonian. Nor is this the worst. We are informed that the Convention openly declared that they did not recognize it as their organ or the exponent of their principles.

Mr. Turner's democratic disguise is too transparent and flimsy any longer to conceal him. He had better throw it off at once.

Death of Ex-Secretary Dobbin.—Mr. Dobbin, of North Carolina, Mr. Pierce's Secretary of the Navy, and the youngest member of his cabinet, has followed Gov. Marcy to the tomb. He died at Fayetteville, N. C. in the 43rd year of his age, of consumption. He was a moderate conservative, southern man, warmly attached to the Union, possessed of great talents, and remarkable for singular clear-headedness and good sound reason. Mr. Dobbin's strong convictions of public duty led him to continue in the Navy Department when his fellow citizens of North Carolina would gladly have transferred him to the Senate of the United States. He persevered in the same resolution to the last, under all the difficulties of declining health, and then returned to the tranquil shades of his birthplace and home, to linger a few months and to die—prematurely, not for his own fame to be sure, but prematurely for the joy of his friends, the hopes of his countrymen, and the service of the nation.

Death of Gen. Rusk.—Gen. Rusk, U. S. Senator from Texas, committed suicide at his residence in that state, on the 1st inst. by shooting himself through the head with a rifle. He is said to have been much affected in his mind, and subject to attacks of mental depression ever since the death of his wife, to whom he was much attached, which occurred about a year ago. Gen. Rusk was President pro tem of the Senate.

The Baltimore Sun, says it is supposed that the mind of Senator Rusk has also been much disturbed lately in consequence of some alleged connection of his brother-in-law with forged notes on the Land Department. The matter, it is surmised preyed upon him to such an extent as to induce this terrible result.

Texas Election.—Texas has given Know Nothingism a quietus. At the recent election, Gen. Sam Houston ran on that ticket for Governor, and is beaten about 15,000 votes. The Legislature is almost entirely democratic, scarcely a single K. N. being elected. Sam can't shine in the Lone Star State.

Ohio Democratic Convention.—The Ohio Democratic State Convention last week made the following nominations: For Governor, Henry B. Payne of Cuyahoga; Lieut. Governor, William H. Lytle of Hamilton; Judge of Supreme Court, Henry C. Whitman of Fairfield; Treasurer of State, James R. Morris of Monroe; Sec. of State, Jacob Reinhart of Franklin; Board of Public Works, Abner L. Backus of Lucas.

The Jeffersonian this week is almost entirely devoted to us and the clique. We do not however see anything new—it is a mere rehearsal of what he has said before. The editor probably thinks that a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth, and is disposed to act on the principle of denying every thing and demanding the proof. His Man Friday, too, who calls himself a Fort Wayne Democrat, follows his illustrious example, and repeats his previous assertions. If a matter is not true in the first place, it remains equally false, however often it may be repeated. We do not therefore think it necessary to occupy any more space in replying to the tedious (twice told tale) repetition of these twin demagogues, but refer our readers to our paper last week.

Mr. Gadallah Isiah Zachariah Rayhauser, late one of the publishers of the Noble Co. Democrat, has commenced a republican paper at Ligonier.

New Iss.—Horace Greeley, the brain-bread philosopher, who has so long been known as a Grahamite and vegetarian, now abjures his vegetable heresy and recommends the use of horse flesh as an article of food. Horace, with all his isms and ecrotchets, is not as big a fool as people take him for. He has got his eye on the White House, and hopes to ride into the Presidential chair on a bit of horseflesh. Fremont was nominated because he had eaten mule flesh and grasshopper pie—or at least we never heard of anything else he had done to give him any claims to the high honor; and Old Whitley it is well known was as prominent a feature in a former contest as old Zack. Hurrah for Horace and Horseflesh! Will be the rallying cry for the next canvass.

Whitley County Democratic Convention. Pursuant to previous notice given by the chairman of the democratic central committee, the democracy of Whitley County convened at the Court House, on Saturday the 9th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The convention organized by appointing Hon. J. C. Bodley, President, and J. B. Firestone and J. Douglas, Secretaries.

On motion, A. J. Douglas was called upon to state the object of the convention. He arose and stated that the object of this convention was to appoint a candidate for Commissioner, a Prosecuting Attorney for the district composed of Noble and Whitley, and delegates to attend the Congressional Convention to be held at Kendallville, on Thursday the 13th inst.

On motion of W. Larwill, a committee of five were appointed to read resolutions—consisting of Messrs Hon. J. L. Worden, W. Larwill, J. B. Edwards, Hon. T. Washburn, and John Goff.

On motion of D. T. Davis Esq., a committee of three were appointed to report suitable persons to act as central committee for the ensuing year—consisting of Horace Tuttle, Dr. C. Hindemans, D. T. Davis Esq. The convention then adjourned until 1 P. M.

At 1 o'clock, P. M., convention convened to proceed to business.

The several committees appointed were called upon to report.

On motion, a committee was appointed to act as central committee makes the following report—

Columbus, J. B. Firestone, J. W. Baker, William Larwill, Cleveland, John Goff, Jefferson, John Crowell, Richard, Jacob Reed, Troy, Moses J. Spencer, Thoren Creek, A. Adams, J. Jones, J. C. Smith, Harrison, Grable, Washington, J. P. Alexander.

Committee on resolutions report as follows: Resolved, That we fully approve of the administration of our present Chief Magistrate James Buchanan, in general, and in the appointment of the Hon. R. J. Walker, as Governor of Kansas, in particular.

2d That we fully and heartily approve of the course and policy pursued by the present Governor of Kansas, believing that his enlightened, firm, and manly course in administering the government of that Territory will restore peace and harmony, and conduce to a settlement of the institutions of that embryo state, by the people thereof, and will put an end to the "bleeding" of which we have heard so much heretofore.

whether made in the "Dred Scott" or any other case, and not let their political prejudices lead them to asperse and assail a tribunal in every way entitled to their highest respect.

4th. The resolutions in our present Governor, Ashbel P. Willard, an able and efficient magistrate, happily supplied to administer the affairs of our state, especially in somewhat stormy times; and that we approve of and have the utmost confidence in his administration.

On motion of D. T. Davis Esq. the delegates appointed by this convention are to be instructed to use all laudable endeavors, after first conferring with the delegates from Noble County, to secure the nomination of A. J. Douglas as candidate for District Attorney for the district composed of the counties of Noble and Whitley.

The convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for commissioner by ballot which resulted as follows:

John Goff 26 Price Goodrich 3.

John Goff receiving the majority was declared the nominee for Commissioner.

By acclamation, B. P. Beeson was renominated as candidate for Coroner.

On motion, the President proceeded to appoint delegates to represent Whitley County in the Congressional Convention to be held at Kendallville.

The following delegates were appointed:—W. Larwill, Columbus; John Goff, Cleveland; H. McClelland, Richmond; Lewis Adams, Troy; Isaac Ruckman, Union; Harrison Grable, Smith; Benjamin Ruffner, Jefferson; J. P. Alexander, Washington; Andrew Adams, Thoren Creek.

On motion, the delegates from this convention were authorized to fill any vacancy by a majority vote.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this convention be published in the Fort Wayne Sentinel and that the other democratic papers in the district are requested to copy.

Convention then adjourned sine die.

Cemetery.

MA. EDITOR.—There seems to be an increasing interest taken in relation to a new Cemetery for burial purposes. Four places are named:—The one south of Beaver's Mill, owned by Mr. Fleming, is objected to on account of distance and of crossing two railroads, besides being rather sandy, which will probably prevent any general union on that location.

The Pollard land is also subject to the objection of a railroad in contemplation, which it is said, when made, will pass between the land and the city; and this location, from the public square and business centre of the city, is much farther than the two other locations, and does not combine the advantage of being within convenient walking distance.

The other two places are the Hinton Farm, on the west side of the plank road leading to Hintonville, and the land lying immediately opposite, on the east side of the road, and extending along the feeder to Mr. Radulski's private cemetery. These places are alike as to distance, but have some very different peculiarities.

As to soil, I am not prepared to speak positively in the comparison; although, I think, it will be found that there is more soil subject to objection on the east side of the road than on the Hinton's side.

From Mr. Radulski's cemetery, along the feeder, there is a fine ridge of timbered land, apparently of dry and suitable soil; but, I think, any one who carefully views it will discover a sudden slope downward, running into a swamp or low land, which is a peculiarity of the general formation of this land, reaching to the road, opposite to the Hinton land; and instead of the slope of the land facing the city, as does the Hinton land, it descends the other way, contrasting very unfavorably with the Hinton's tract, in its appearance and attractiveness for cemetery lots.

The view of the two tracts of land, from the road, is strikingly different, as any one will discover in passing. The Hinton side gradually rises, undulating over its entire space, admirably fitting for a city, and presenting an attractive appearance from the city, along the entire route to it; and from the elevated plane of the ground, the city appears to great advantage;—thus, from both directions, a cementing, attractive influence will constantly aid our tenderest sympathies and affections between the living and the dead.

The first view, in crossing the feeder bridge, at once attracts the attention to the Hinton residence, with the rising ground and beautiful shade trees around the front, which would afford a grateful resting place to those visiting the Cemetery, after walking from the city, previous to their passing through the avenue to enjoy the refining pleasures incident to cultivated public grounds, as well as to drop an affectionate tear.

Two holes have been dug on this land; one central, and the other in the rear, or edge of the wood land. The reports are favorable as to soil; clay loam some three feet on the surface, to give a good soil, and a very fine one at five or six feet, so as to allow any rain passing through the clay above to pass readily off at the bottom of the grave. Any person feeling an interest in this respect can make an examination while the holes are open.

The thirty acres can be purchased for about three thousand hundred dollars. The balance of the purchase money can be arranged with the owners to remain one or two years, on paying about five hundred dollars, and probably longer if necessary. Some $500 or $1,000, or less, would probably lay out this thirty acres, and plant good shade trees along its extreme on the cleared land, to prepare lots for sale.

The proportion of cleared land, on both of these tracts, is about equal, not very dissimilar—probably equal in the same extent of ground.

The wood land on the Hinton side, in some respects to be preferred, the advantage of being at the foot of a stump, with a location with the peculiarly attractive features of the Hinton tract, partly wooded, with lands adjoining which it can be made the interest of owners to add when wanted, renders this spot that can be made all that the taste and public spirit of those who may engage in the enterprise may wish, while other more favorably wooded lands may fall in some important advantages connected with this location so easy of access.

I propose that some ten or twenty persons look into this subject, and unite in putting this enterprise through at once, by the ground laid out, avenues graded, and if necessary felled, and good sized trees planted early this fall, with a public sale of lots made, which may cover the whole expense, and lay the foundation for more perfect improvements.

An interesting risk, a liberal advance, and await the sale of lots to secure this, in my judgment the most desirable spot on which to exhibit some public spirit worthy of the business men and capitalists of our growing city.

DAYTON, August 5.

The American State Convention.—The American State Convention opened at Hinton Hall in this city, at ten o'clock this morning, and organized by appointing John Clark, of Munking, temporary Chairman, and Albert McFarland, of Scioto, Secretary.

After the appointment of a Committee on Candidates and Resolutions, an effort was made to separate the sincere pure Americans from the Black-Republicans and Democrats—the latter to take back seats, and those occupying the front seats to show openly their fealty to the American cause, before being allowed to vote.

This was finally referred to Committee on Resolutions, and the Convention took a recess until half past ten o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at half-past one and the following permanent officers were selected: J. Scott Harrison, President; Judge Thatcher of Toledo; Daniel Scott, of Highland; A. H. Vance, of Champagne, and Seth Ely, of Summit, Vice Presidents; and A. McFarland, of Scioto, and William Smith, of Fayette, Secretaries.

After a warm discussion the Convention adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we repel as false and unjust the charge made against us, that we are in favor of the extension of slavery into free territory; but we deem it also our duty to condemn the spirit of sectionalism which seems to array the people of the country against another, and to declare our unalterable devotion to the interests of the whole country, one and indivisible.

The Convention then nominated the following State Ticket:

For Governor, Colonel P. Von Trump, of Fairfield; Lieut. Governor, N. A. Ash, of Lucas; State Treasurer, Jonathan Harshman, of Montgomery; Board of Public Works, John R. Arthur, of Highland; Highland; Supreme Judge, John Davenport, of Belmont; Secretary of State, C. C. Allen, of Ross.

The Convention adjourned at five o'clock sine die.

A New White House.

—The Washington correspondent of The Press, Colonel Forney's new paper, says that "there can be little doubt that the erection of a new Presidential mansion will be one of the measures that will receive the favorable action of the next Congress."

The propriety of the measures will not be questioned, we imagine, by any one except those who may have a desire to make way with our Presidents soon after their election.

The new White House, the present location of the White House in so sickly a place is a disgrace to the nation.

CEMETERY NOTICE.

The citizens of Fort Wayne are requested to meet at the Court House on TUESDAY Evening next, at early candlelight, for the purpose of taking into consideration the subject of purchasing a suitable piece of ground for a Cemetery. A general attendance is requested.

Congressional Convention.

The convention, at Kendallville, was well attended, each county being fully represented. It was a temporary organization by appointing Pliny H. Agland, esq., Chairman, and Mr. G. A. G. of Keokuk, Secretary. A committee was then appointed to select permanent officers of the convention, who soon after reported for President, A. Allison, esq. of Logansport, and the democratic editors of the district, present, for Secretaries.

The several committees were then appointed, and the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock. A. the re-assembling of the convention Mr. Randall reported the Resolutions, which were adopted, a motion was made to go into a ballot for candidate for Congress. Mr. Smith, of this county, then presented a letter from Dr. Sturgis, declining to be a candidate, which Mr. Smith accompanied with some pertinent and appropriate remarks. Mr. Dawson, also declined being a candidate, after boasting a little of his popularity in Allen County. Judge Worden's name was then announced to the convention, and an informal ballot taken which resulted in Judge Worden having a majority on the first ballot; and he was declared unanimously the candidate for Congress in the 10th District.

We congratulate the democracy upon the result. We have an able and popular candidate around whom all can heartily rally and with the most cheering prospect of success. Under all these circumstances, it is the best nomination that could have been made; and though Judge Worden had not been spoken of as a candidate, and probably had not himself any expectation of the honor conferred upon him, it appears to be generally and heartily acquiesced in. There was so much feeling engendered between the friends of the other candidates, that it is not probable any of them could have received a nod and united support which would be necessary to ensure the election. The nomination of a new man was therefore a judicious act on the part of the Convention, and Judge Worden is probably the strongest man that could have been selected. He is an able man, well known and justly popular throughout the district, and will undoubtedly rally the whole democratic strength in his support.

We will give the proceedings of the convention next week.

Resignation of Judge Stewart.—Judge Stewart of the Indiana Supreme Court has resigned. The reason given is that his private affairs constrain him to resume the practice. On other words, that the beggarly pittance allowed our judges is not sufficient to maintain his family, and that he can earn more by practicing as a lawyer than he receives as judge of our Supreme Court. It is a disgrace and injury to the state that we do not allow our judges such a fair compensation as would enable us to command the best legal abilities on the Bench. We trust this will be remedied.

The vacancy caused by this resignation will have to be filled at the ensuing October election.

Firemen's Visit.—The Toledo Relief Hook & Ladder Company paid our city a visit on Tuesday last as guests of Alert Fire Co. No. 1, and it is perhaps needless to say, "quite thorough" in first rate style.

The guests arrived here at 10 o'clock and were received by the Alerts, who escorted them to the Mayor House, where they partook of an excellent breakfast; after which a procession was formed consisting of the two companies, with flags and bands of music, and their apparatus beautifully decorated with garlands and wreaths.

On arriving at Freeman's Hall the "Reliefs" were welcomed in a neat and appropriate manner by Mr. Dodge. Mr. Bassett, of Toledo, on behalf of the Hook & Ladder Company, then presented Capt. Bouris of the Alerts with a splendid silver trumpet accompanying the gift with an appropriate and eloquent address, to which Capt. Bouris suitably responded. The company then proceeded to Coleman's Hall and partook of a sumptuous dinner got up in Colonial style, and to which ample justice was done. After dinner champagne and catnaws were discussed, toasts given, speeches made, and a good time had generally. The remainder of the day was spent in an uninterrupted round of enjoyment and festivity, until near midnight, when the guests were escorted to the cars by their hosts, and returned home, highly delighted with their visit, and enthusiastic in their praises of the liberality of our firemen and the hospitality of their reception.

The Toledo company is a fine, gentlemanly well-behaved body of men, and have left a very favorable impression of the city they represented among our citizens.

The Toledo papers speak in the highest terms of the handsome manner in which their company was received by our citizens, and no fear assured this visit will do much to strengthen the cordiality and good feeling existing between the two places so intimately connected as Toledo and Fort Wayne.

The Jeffersonian of this place publishes an edition for circulation in Whitley Co., changing the head of the paper, and calling it the Whitley Co. Jeffersonian. The Democratic there, however, do not seem to have much more confidence in him than the democracy of Allen Co. have. At their late County Convention the proceedings were ordered to be published in the Sentinel, and the democratic papers in the district requested to copy them—thus ignoring the Whitley Co. Jeff entirely. Nor is this the worst. We are informed that the Convention openly declared that they did not recognize it as their organ or the exponent of their principles.

Mr. Turner's democratic disguise is too transparent and flimsy any longer to conceal him. He had better throw it off at once.

Death of Ex-Secretary Dobbin.—Mr. Dobbin, of North Carolina, Mr. Pierce's Secretary of the Navy, and the youngest member of his cabinet, has fallen from glory. He died at Fayetteville, N. C. in the 43rd year of his age, of consumption. He was a moderate conservative, a southern man, warmly attached to the Union, possessed of great talents, and remarkable for singular clear-headedness and good sound sense. Mr. Dobbin's strong convictions of public duty led him to continue in the Navy Department when his fellow citizens of North Carolina would gladly have transferred him to the Senate of the United States. He persevered in the same resolution to the last, under all the difficulties of declining health, and then returned to the tranquil shades of his birthplace and home, to linger a few months and to die—prematurely, not for his own fame to be sure, but prematurely for the joy of his friends, the hopes of his countrymen, and the service of the nation.

Death of Gen. Rush.—Gen. Rush, U. S. Senator from Texas, committed suicide at his residence in that state, on the 1st inst. by shooting himself through the head with a rifle. He is said to have been much affected in his mind, and subject to attacks of mental depression ever since the death of his wife, to whom he was much attached, which occurred about a year ago. Gen. Rush was President pro tem of the Senate.

The Baltimore Sun, says it is supposed that the mind of Senator Rush has also been much disturbed lately in consequence of some alleged connection of his brother-in-law with fugitives on the Land Department. The matter, it is surmised preyed upon him to such an extent as to induce this terrible result.

Texas Election.—Texas has given Know Nothing a quietus. At the recent election, Gen. Sam. Houston ran on that ticket for Governor, and is beaten about 15,000 votes. The Legislature is almost entirely Democratic, except a single K. N. being elected. Sam. can't shine in the Lone Star State.

Ohio Democratic Convention.—The Ohio Democratic State Convention last week made the following nominations: For Governor, Henry B. Payne of Cuyahoga; Lieutenant Governor, William H. Lytle, of Hamilton; Judge of Supreme Court, Henry C. Whitman of Fairfield; Treasurer of State, James R. Morris of Monroe; Sec. of State, Jacob Reinhart of Franklin; Board of Public Works, Abner L. Backus of Lucas. The Jeffersonian this week is almost entirely devoted to us and the clique. We do not however see any thing new—it is a mere retelling of what he had said before. The editor probably thinks that a life well stuck to is as good as the truth, and is disposed to act on the principle of denying every thing and demanding the proof. His Man Friday, too, who calls himself A. Fort Wayne Democrat, follows his illustrious example, and repeats his previous assertions. If a matter is not true in the first place, it remains equally false, however often it may be repeated. We do not therefore think it necessary to occupy any more space in replying to the tedious twice told tale repeated of these two democrats, but refer our readers to our paper of last week.

Mr. G. Galahish Isiah Zichariay Rayhauser, late one of the publishers of the Noble Co. Democrat, has commenced a republican paper at Logansport.

New York.—Horace Greeley, the broad-brimmed philosopher, who has so long been known as a Grahamite and vegetarian, now abjures his vegetable heresy and recommends the use of horse flesh as an article of food. Horace, with all his isms and ecstasies, is not as big a fool as people take him for. He has got his eye on the White House, and hopes to ride into the Presidential chair on a bit of horseflesh. Fremont was nominated because he had eaten mule flesh and grasshopper pie—or at least we never heard of any thing else he had done to give him any claims to the high honor. And Old Whitey it is well known was as prominent a feature in a former contest as old Zerk. Hurrah for Horace and Horseflesh! Will be the rallying cry for the next canvass.

Whitley County Democratic Convention. Pursuant to previous notice given by the chairman of the democratic central committee, the democracy of Whitley County convened at the Court House, on Saturday the 9th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The convention organized by appointing H. J. C. Douglas, President, and J. B. Firestone and A. J. Douglas, Secretaries.

On motion, A. J. Douglas was called upon to state the object of the convention. He arose and stated that the object of this convention was to appoint a candidate for Commissioner, a Prosecuting Attorney for the district composed of Noble and Whitley, and delegates to attend the Congressional Convention to be held at Kendallville, on Thursday the 13th inst.

On motion of W. Larwill, a committee of five were appointed to read resolutions—consisting of Messrs H. J. L. Worden, W. Larwill, J. Edwards, Hon. T. Washburn, and John Goff.

On motion of D. T. Davis Esq., a committee of three were appointed to report suitable persons to act as central committee for the ensuing year—consisting of Horace Tuttle, Dr. C. Hermann, D. T. Davis, Esq. The convention then adjourned until 1 P. M.

At 1 o'clock, P. M., convention convened to proceed to business.

The several committees appointed were called upon to report.

The committee to report suitable persons to act as central committee makes the following report:—

Columbus, J. B. Firestone, J. W. Baker, William Larwell, Cleveland, John Goff, Jefferson, John Crowell, Richard, Jacob Reed, Troy, Moses F. Spencer, Throckmold, A. Adams, Union, J. Ruckman, Smith, Harrison, Grable, Washington, J. P. Alexander.

Committee on resolutions report as follows: Resolved, That we fully approve of the administration of our present Chief Magistrate James Buchanan, in general, and in the appointment of the Hon. H. J. Walker, as Governor of Kansas, in particular.

2d. That we fully and heartily approve of the course and policy pursued by the present Governor of Kansas, believing that his enlightened, firm, and manly course in administering the government of that Territory will restore peace and harmony, and conduce to a settlement of the institutions of that embryo state, by the people thereof, and will put an end to the "bleeding" of which we have heard so much heretofore.

3d. That we have the highest and most unlimited confidence in the integrity, ability, and impartiality of the highest judicial tribunal known to our institutions, the Supreme Court of the United States, that final arbiter, established by the Constitution itself to determine all questions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States, and in the judgment of all good citizens ought to acquiesce in its decisions.

whether made in the "Dred Scott" or any other case, and not let their political prejudices lead them to asperse and assail a tribunal in every way entitled to their highest respect.

4th. That we recognize in our present Governor, Asahel P. Willard, a Chief Magistrate, happily selected to administer the affairs of our state, especially in somewhat stormy times, and that we express of and have the utmost confidence in his administration.

On motion of D. T. Davis, Esq. the delegates appointed by this convention are to be instructed to use all laudable endeavors, after first conferring with the delegates from Noble County, to secure the nomination of A. J. Douglas as candidate for District Attorney for the district composed of the counties of Noble and Whitley.

The convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for commissioner by ballot which resulted as follows:

John Goff 26 Price Goodrich 3.

John Goff receiving the majority was declared the nominee for Commissioner.

By acclamation, B. F. Beeson was renominated as candidate for Coroner.

On motion, the President proceeded to appoint delegates to represent Whitley County in the Congressional Convention to be held at Kendallville, July 1st.

The following delegates were appointed:—W. Larwell, Columbus; John Goff, Cleveland; H. J. C. Douglas, Union; Harrison Grable, Smith; Benjamin Ruffner, Jefferson; J. P. Alexander, Washington; Andrew Adams, Throckmold.

On motion, the delegates from this convention were authorized to fill any vacancy by a majority vote.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this convention be published in the Fort Wayne Sentinel and that the other democratic papers in the district are requested to copy.

Convention then adjourned sine die.

CEMETERY.

Mr. Editor.—There seems to be an increasing interest taken in relation to a new Cemetery for burial purposes. Four places are named:—

The one south of Beaver's Mill, owned by Mr. Fleming, is objected to on account of distance and of crossing two railroads, besides being rather too sandy, which will probably prevent any general union on that location.

The Pollard land is also subject to the objection of a railroad in contemplation, which it is said, when made, will pass between the land and the city; and this location, from the public square and business centre of the city, is much farther than the other locations, and does not combine the advantage of being within convenient walking distance.

The other two places are the Hinton Farm, on the west side of the plank road leading to Huntstown, and the land lying immediately opposite, on the east side of the road, and extending along the feeder to Mr. Russell's private cemetery. These places are also at distance, but have some very different peculiarities.

As to soil, I am not prepared to speak positively in the comparison; although, I think, it will be found that there is more soil subject to objection on the east side of the road than on the Hinton's side. From Mr. Russell's cemetery, along the feeder, there is a fine ridge of timbered land, apparently of dry and suitable soil; but I think, any one who carefully views it will discover a too sudden slope northerly, running into the city, and which is a peculiarity of the general formation of this land, reaching to the foot, opposite to the Hinton land; and instead of the slope of the land facing the city, as does the Hinton land, it descends the other way, contrasting very unfavorably with the Hinton's tract, in its slightly ascending and attractiveness to cemetery lots.

The view of the two tracts of land, from the road, is strikingly different, as any one will discover in passing. The Hinton side gradually rises, undulating over its entire space, admirably facing the city, and presenting an attractive appearance from the city, and along the entire route to it; and from the elevated platform of the ground, the city appears to great advantage—thus, from both directions, a cementing attractive influence will constantly aid our tenderest sympathies and affections toward the living and the dead.

The first view, in crossing the feeder bridge, at once attracts the attention to the Hinton side, with the rising ground and beautiful shade trees around the front, which would afford a grateful resting place to those visiting the Cemetery, after walking from the city, previous to their passing through the avenues to enjoy the refining pleasures incident to cultivated public grounds, as well as to drop an affectionate tear.

Two houses have been dug on this land; one central, and the other in the rear, or edge of the wood land. The reports are favorable as to the soil, clay loam some three feet on the surface, and so to a gravelly mixed soil at five or six feet, so as to allow any rain passing through the clay above to pass readily off at the bottom of the grave. Any person feeling an interest in this report can make an examination while the holes are open.

The thirty acres can be purchased for about three thousand four hundred dollars. The balance of the purchase money can be arranged with the owners, to be paid in three or four years, paying about five hundred dollars, and probably longer if necessary. Some $500 or $1,000, or less, would probably lay out this thirty acres, and plant good sized trees along the avenues on the cleared land, to prepare lots for sale.

The proportion of cleared land, on both of these tracts, is about equal, and the wooded land, in the rear of each, not very dissimilar—probably equal in the same extent of ground.

While wood lands are in some respects to be preferred, the most desirable spot being truly one of stumps, with a location, with the peculiarly attractive features of the Hinton tract, partly wooded, with lands adjoining which it can be made the interest of owners to add when wanted, renders this a spot that can be made all that the taste and public spirit of those who may engage in the enterprise may wish, while more favorably wooded lands may fail in some important advantages connected with this location so easy of access.

I propose that some ten or twenty persons look into this subject, and unite in pushing this enterprise through at once—having the grounds laid out, avenues graded, and if necessary graded, and good sized trees planted early this fall, with a public sale of lots made, which may cover the whole expense, and lay the foundation for more perfect improvements.

I am willing to risk a liberal advance, and await the sale of lots, to secure this, in my judgment, the most desirable spot which truly exhibits some public spirit worthy of the business men and capitalists of our growing city.

A CITIZEN.

DAYTON, August 5.

The American State Convention.—The American State Convention assembled at Huston Hall in this city, at ten o'clock this morning, and organized by appointing John Clark, of Muskingum, temporary Chairman, and Albert McFarland, of Scioto, Secretary.

After the appointment of a Committee on Candidates and Resolutions, an effort was made to separate the Simon-pure Americans from the Black-Republicans and Democrats—the latter to be the back seats and those occupying the front seats to show openly their loyalty to the American cause, before being allowed to vote.

This was finally referred to Committees on Resolutions, and the Convention took a recess until half-past ten o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at half-past one and the following permanent officers were selected: J. Scott Harrison, President; Judge Thatcher of Toledo; Daniel Scott, of Highland; A. H. Vance, of Champaign; John E. Smith, of Summit, Vice Presidents; and A. McFarland, of Scioto, and William Smith, of Fayette, Secretaries.

After a warm discussion the Convention adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we repel as false and unjust the charge made against us that we are in favor of the extension of slavery into free territory, but we deem it also our duty to condemn the spirit of sectionalism which seeks to array one portion of the country against another, and to declare our unalterable devotion to the interests of the whole country, one and indivisible.

The Convention then nominated the following State Ticket:

For Governor, Colonel P. Von Trump, of Fairfield; Lieutenant Governor, N. T. Ash, of Lucas; State Treasurer, Jonathan Harshman, of Montgomery; Board of Public Works, John R. Arthur, of Highland; Highway, Supreme Judge, John Davenport, of Belmont; Secretary of State, C. C. Allen, of Ross.

The Convention adjourned at five o'clock sine die.

A New White House.—The Washington correspondent of The Press, Colonel Forney's new paper, says that "there can be little doubt that the erection of a new Presidential mansion will be one of the measures that will receive the favorable action of the next Congress."

The propriety of the measures will not be questioned, we imagine, by any one except those who may have a desire to make way with our Presidents soon after their election.

The above is a good idea. The present location of the White House is so sickly a place is a disgrace to the nation.

The Difficulty in Kansas—Trouble Made by Outsiders.—The Detroit Free Press says it is well understood in Kansas that there would have been no trouble or opposition to Governor Walker in Kansas if it had not been for Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, who visited the Territory and persisted upon the leaders of the Black Republican faction to continue a disturbance for political capital in the States.

The St. Peter (Minnesota) Courier of July 22 says it is now ascertained, beyond a doubt, that the Ink-pa-tah and his band, who captured Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Marble, of Spirit Lake, are anxiously endeavoring to draw pay for their services, and do not last fall but draw pay for their services.

Ascertaining this, Mr. Cullen, the superintendent, under instructions from the department, refused to pay the Indians until they surrendered Ink-pa-tah and his band, or exterminated them. At first this caused great dissatisfaction, but they finally acquiesced, and a party of two hundred braves, six from each band, has already started for that purpose. The troops do not go with them, Ink-pa-tah is at Skunk Lake. The troops will be in a position to exterminate, root and branch, which will undoubtedly put an end to all the difficulties.

Kentucky and Missouri.—There is little doubt now that Rollins, the candidate for Governor in Missouri, supported by a fusion of the Know Nothing, Ben. Deacons and Black Republicans, is elected by a very small majority over Stewart, regular Democrat. The incongruous and unnatural union cannot exist long, and we look for the early return of the State into the Democratic fold. In Kentucky the Democrats will have about sixty members of the House of Representatives to the Know Nothing's forty.

In the State Senate the Know Nothing have twenty members to the Democrats' eighteen. It is owing to a large number of Know Nothings holding over from two years ago. The Democratic majority on joint ballot will be sixteen. This is amply sufficient to give the Democrats the United States Senator.

The Next House of Representatives.—The recent elections have demonstrated that the Democrats will have a good working majority in the next House of Representatives. They had but four to gain in order to give them a majority and this has been accomplished in Kentucky and Missouri. Tennessee has given us a gain of two members, and further gains are to be looked for in Texas, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and North Carolina. The Democratic majority in the next House, over all opposition, will be of twelve, and on questions relating to slavery it will be about fifty. The defeat of the notorious Ethridge, the semi Black Republican from Tennessee, upon whom the opposition intended to unite for Speaker, is a great triumph, only inferior to that won by Clay over Hannan.—Cin. Enq.

Bank of the State of Indiana.—The Vincennes Bank, has been a violent opponent of the new State Bank, after alluding to the old Bank, which says: "was admirably managed during the twenty years of its existence, not only for the interests of the stockholders, but those of the State," says of the new institution:
